

Diana Wyndham

PHA accreditation, qualifications, memberships

Professional Member, PHA (NSW)
ALAA (Library Association of Australia, 1966)
BA (UNE, 1977)
Mlib (UNSW, 1982)
PhD (USYD, 1997)

Contact

5 Little Alfred Street, North Sydney NSW 2060
W: (02) 9237 5584 H: (02) 9954 1217 F: (02) 9383 8124
E: diana.wy@bigpond.net.au

Honours and Awards

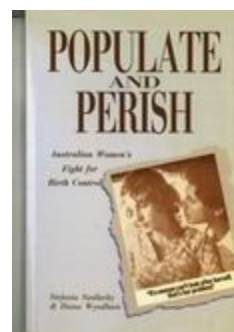

J H Bell Sociology Prize, University of New England, 1977
Bicentennial Grant (with Stefania Siedlecky), 1987
Norman Haire Fellowship, University of Sydney, Faculty of Medicine, 1998 and 1999

Specialisations

Medical history, particularly women's health and birth control; Information retrieval

Published works

Populate and Perish: Australian Women's Fight for Birth Control, by Stefania Siedlecky and Diana Wyndham, Allen & Unwin, 1990

Eugenics In Australia: Striving for National Fitness, London: Galton Institute, 2003

Published Articles and Book Chapters

'Forget Population Control – All You Need is Love', review of Matthew Connelly, Fatal Misconception: The Struggle to Control World Population, Boston: Harvard University Belknap Press, 2008, Australian Review of Public Affairs, vol 9, no 2, 2009
<http://www.australianreview.net/index.html>

Norman Haire Writes for Woman - A Battle for Sex Reform and Civil Liberties, History, September 2006, 8-9.

Versmaking and Lovemaking – W B Yeats' 'Strange Second Puberty': Norman Haire and the Steinach Rejuvenation Operation, Journal of History of the Behavioral Sciences, vol 39 (1), 2003, 25-50

Misdiagnosis and Miscarriage of Justice? Dr Norman Haire and the 1919 Influenza Epidemic at Newcastle Hospital, Health and History, vol 2 (1), July 2000, 3-26.

Plans for Producing Better Babies, History, no 54, December 1997, 25-28.

Dr Isobel Bennett, AO – Oral history interview for Stanton Library, North Sydney Council, January 1997 and WISNET Journal, no 44, July 1997, 13-15.

(with Adam Graycar and Michael Horsburgh) Welfare – Chapter 43 in Australians: A Guide to Sources: (Fairfax, Syme & Associates), 1987, 356-64.

Medical Mystification. But we Keep Taking the Tabloids, Medical Journal of Australia, vol 22, (8), December 1984, 832-835.

Why Study Working Mothers and Ignore Working Fathers? The Impact of Parental Employment on Children, Australian Quarterly, vol 55, Autumn 1983, 14-18.

Fair Sharing? [Job Sharing], Australian Society, 1 October 1983, 10-12.

No News and Bad News: A Brief History of Sex Education for Children, in Teaching About Sex: The Australian Experience, Wendy McCarthy (ed) (Allen and Unwin), 1983, 1-10.

My Doctor Gives Me Pills to Put Him Out of His Misery: Women and Psychotropic Drugs, New Doctor, no 23, March 1982, 21-25.

Sexism as it Affects Consumers and Providers of Health Care, in Women, Class and History: Feminist Perspectives on Australia, 1788-1978, Elizabeth Windschuttle (ed) (Fontana/Collins), 1980, 558-91.

Conference papers

Misdiagnosis and Miscarriage of Justice, Royal Newcastle Hospital: An Australian Icon Conference, 11 March 2006.

'Dr Wykeham Terriss' Writes for Woman: Norman Haire's Sexuality Challenges to Wartime Australia, 8th Biennial Conference of the History of the Australian Society of the History of Medicine, Melbourne, 24 April 2003.

7th Biennial Conference of the History of the Australian Society of the History of Medicine, Adelaide, 21 April 2001 – paper published in Journal of History of the Behavioral Sciences, vol 39 (1), 2003, 25-50

History and Sociology of Eugenics Conference, Newcastle, 28 April 2000 – paper in Health and History, vol 2 (1), July 2000, 3-26.

Dr Norman Haire and the 1944 ABC Population Unlimited? Debate: A Fight for Free Speech and Sexual Reform, 6th Biennial Conference of the Australian Society of the History of Medicine, July 1999.

Ad Men, Subtract Women: Profit Without Honour, Media Images of Women Conference, Perth, 8 November 1986

Remotely Visible? How Lobbying and the Media Can Help, Council of Remote Area Nurses Conference, Perth, September 1987